

SEMINAR „River basin management plans: environmental, economic aspects and needs of society“

PROGRAMME

NOVEMBER 28, 2006

9.30-10.00	Registration of participants
10.00-10.10	Introduction Liutauras Stoškus, Environmental Protection Agency
10.10-10.40	Integration of spatial planning and water resources management Aldona Margerienė, Environmental Protection Agency
10.40-11.10	River basin management plans: environmental, economical and social aspects. Role of Coordination Boards Mindaugas Gudas Environmental Protection Agency
11.10-11.25	Building of institutional capacity in the Nemunas river basin district Bernardas Paukštys, GWP-Lithuania
11.25-11.45	Coffee Break
11.45-12.20	Environmental objectives in the Nemunas RBD: needs and perspectives Tomas Virbickas, Institute of Ecology
12.20-12.35	Public participation and stakeholder involvement in the Nemunas RBD planning. Ieva Junevičienė/Jurgita Mačiūnaitė
12.35-13.00	Discussion
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.25	Groundwater and surface water interaction in the Nemunas RBD Kęstutis Kadūnas, Geological Survey of Lithuania
14.25-14.55	Integrated water resources management and river basin management – similarities and differences. Bernardas Paukštys, GWP-Lithuania
14.55-15.20	Water Framework Directive and agriculture – is it possible to avoid conflicts? Vilma Kriveliienė, „Orbicon“
15.20-15.45	Film „Water for the Future“
15.45 – 16.10	Discussion, closure